

The British Constructional Steelwork Association Limited

October 2013

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

The British Constructional Steelwork Association Ltd (the "Association") confirms that Cooper & Turner Ltd, a member of the Association, has provided it with copies of the following certificates where applicable:

- Factory Production Control Certificate
- Welding Certificate
- Declaration(s) of Performance

The Association has reviewed each of the certificates and verifies that prima facie each certificate:

- Complies with the Construction Products Regulation in terms of format and or scope and
- Appears to have been issued by a Notified Body accredited to the appropriate harmonised standard.

The Association does not warrant the content and or value of any certificate.
